

Summer Reading Assignment: AP/Dual Credit Economics (Micro and Macro) and Government

Wheelan, Charles. 2010. Naked Economics: Undressing the Dismal Science. 325 pages.

(Be sure to read the edition published in 2010 that is “fully revised and updated”, as it includes discussion of the 2008 financial crisis.)

Read carefully enough to prepare for a test, given during the first week of class. Questions on the test will be manageable for those that read the book; those that simply read online summaries will find it very difficult.

I will also post this information to the front page of my website.
